MEMORANDUM

July 27, 2000

To: Internal Revenue Service Center
From: Rheb H. Harbison, Jr.
Florida Chamber of Commerce Political Action Committee
Re: Form 8871; Status of Section 527 Filings

---

Enclosed is the signed original copy of Form 8871 filed on behalf of the Florida Chamber of Commerce Political Action Committee (FCC-PAC). After a careful reading of the newly enacted law (Public Law 106-230) imposing certain disclosure requirements on 527 organizations, it continues to remain unclear whether in fact our organization is required to file the required form.

The FCC-PAC was formed as and continues to operate as a committee of continuance existence collecting and accumulating funds to be used to support candidates running only for Florida state public office. Pursuant to its bylaws, this PAC does not have the authority to participate in any federal political election. However, we do not qualify for disclosure exemption under the three possibilities listed in P.L. 106-230.

As a PAC in the state of Florida, we are already required by law to file very similar disclosure statements. Therefore, it is the request of the Florida Chamber of Commerce Political Action Committee that the Internal Revenue Service carefully review the legal obligation imposed by the new law and determine, in writing, whether in fact our organization must continue to file this form, as well as Form 8872.

Thank you for your prompt attention to this matter.
